

Welcome to the MARCH search

2014

1. HAZEL " Lambs tails" (Catkins)
- 2 . "Pussy Willow" Genus Salix.
- 3 . Wild Violet.
- 4 . LADYBIRD.
- 5 . Roe Deer.
- 6 . New shoots on a " Dog Rose"
- 7 . Pheasants Tail Feather.
- 8 . A fallen Bird box.
- 9 . Primrose nearly in flower.
10. Moss Growing on a post.
11. Honey suckle vine on tree.
- 12 . Wild arum," Lords & Ladies"

FEBRUARY ANSWER

Ancient woodland /hedgerow

Wild service tree, a species of the Genus SORBUS, also known as the "CHEQUER TREE" once common in hedges and woods . when found, usually confined to ancient woodland that has stood for at least 400 years.

MARCH Question

What do you call a Baby Rabbit?

Heddingham Road main entrance

March 2nd 2014

